About Ciarra Claire

I strive to create cards that give you a beautiful canvas for your words. To help you to say what you want to say. To make people feel special, seen, and appreciated. Our cards and prints are high-quality keepsakes that also look great on retail shelves!

I am an artist, writer, and letterpress printer. I started my business as a calligrapher in 2015 and became a wedding invitation designer soon after. The more I learned about the stationery world, the more I loved it. I now run a small letterpress studio in beautiful Northern Michigan. My small team of amazing women prints all the stationery by hand on 100-year-old printing presses. We use earth friendly paper and packaging materials.

We pride ourselves on high-quality products and friendly customer service.

Our paper goods are earth friendly, thoughtfully designed, and made by hand in Petoskey, Michigan.

GREETING CARDS

Our greeting cards feature original illustrations, calligraphy, and hand drawn fonts by Ciarra Claire. Our cards are made with tree-free cotton pulp, a byproduct of the textile industry. Most of our envelopes contain recycled material, and were produced using alternative green energy. All greeting cards are packaged in compostable, plastic-free clear sleeves.

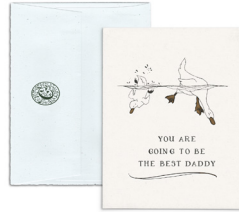

Every card is printed by hand on 100-year-old printing presses in Petoskey, Michigan.

LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS

Floral-filled stationery inspired by the Victorian “Language of Flowers,” or Flora Symbolica. In a world where relationships revolved around etiquette and rules, the Victorians created a coded way of communicating through flowers. This allowed people to express themselves, fall in love, and even exact revenge. This line is directly inspired by the original flower meanings found in the floral “dictionaries” of the mid-1800s.
